ORDER

ROBERT W. LEHRBURGER, United States Magistrate Judge.

Counsel for Defendant has moved to withdraw as counsel for Defendant. According to Defense Counsel, Defendant, by its President, has directed Defense Counsel in writing to take no further action defending this case, and informed Defense Counsel that Defendant is no longer an operating entity and has no funds available to continue defending the litigation and to pay Defense Counsel.

The Court finds good cause for Defense Counsel's withdrawal, which hereby is granted.

Because it is a business entity, Defendant cannot appear in this litigation without representation of counsel. Accordingly, by December 16, 2019, any new counsel for Defendant shall make an appearance in the case. In the absence of any such appearance, the Court will proceed to resolve the pending motion for summary judgment.

Defense Counsel must provide a copy of this Order to its clients President, Scott May, no later than November 25, 2019, and shall file an affidavit of service of same no later than November 26, 2019.

SO ORDERED.
